

Improving Auditory Memory

- Reduce distracting background noises
- Reduce visual distractions
- Talk clearly with good pronunciation
- Give auditory information with breaks between steps- Chunk it!
- Give additional visual input, such as facing the child when you talk or use dry erase board
- Promote good posture with the student
- Use simple sentences
- Provide additional sensory input when possible
- Give child time to respond to what they hear.

