

I Spy

find the shape. Take a piece of paper and cut out a small square just large enough to show the sample. Then place it over each row moving it steadily from left to right slowly (it should take approx. 8 seconds to slide it over each row). See how many of the first shape are identified.

